

CLOUGHFOLD

Formerly a large manufacturing village in the parish of Newchurch was formed into a separate ecclesiastical district March 26 1887, from the new parishes of Rawtenstall and St James' Waterfoot, and part of the parochial chapelry of Newchurch, in Rossendale, and is now included in the municipal borough and civil parish of Rawtenstall: it is in the county court district of Bacup, a station on the East Lancashire section of the Lancashire and Yorkshire railway. The church of St John, erected in 1890 at a cost of £5,000, is a building of stone in the Gothic style of the late 14th century, consisting of chancel, clerestoried nave, of five bays, transepts, aisles and a south porch, and the base of a tower: there are 450 sittings. The register dates from 1890. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £210, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Manchester and his successors for ever, and held since 1902 by the Rev Charles Merchant, MA, of Worcester College, Oxford. The Baptist chapel, first built in 1657, enlarged in 1838 and again in 1853, cost upwards of £2,000. Dr Isaac Watts, the well known author of "Psalms and Hymns", and of various songs and hymns for children, was sometime minister here. There are also Wesleyan and Primitive Methodist chapels. The works of the Rossendale Gas company are in this village. The population of the ecclesiastical district in 1911 was 3,110.

NEWCHURCH IN ROSSENDALE,

Now included within the municipal borough of Rawtenstall, is a village on the old high road from Burnley to Manchester, 3½ miles east from Haslingden; it was originally a chapelry in the parish of Whalley and with the hamlets of Clough Fold was formed into an ecclesiastical parish June 7, 1867, from the civil parish of Whalley, Bacup county court district, rural deanery of Whalley, archdeaconry of Blackburn and diocese of Manchester. The parish is intersected by the Lancashire and Yorkshire railway, which has a station at Waterfoot, and the river Irwell skirts it on the south. The church of St Nicholas, rebuilt in 1826, on the site of the old chapel erected in 1512 is a building of stone in the Late Perpendicular style, consisting of nave, aisles, north and south porches and an embattled western tower containing a clock and 8 bells; there are memorials to the Hargreaves, Law, Lord and Patrick families and three stained windows; the church will seat 900 persons, 300 sittings being free: in the church yard is a stone with quaint inscription to John Kewchaw, founder of the Grammar school, and his wife. The register dates from the year 1623. The living is a rectory, net yearly value £650, with residence, erected in 1852, in the gift of the vicar of Whalley, and held since 1906 by the Rev James Salmon Addison MA of University College, Durham.
