

Kelly's Directory of Lancashire 1909

CLOUGHFOLD formerly a large manufacturing village in the parish of Newchurch, was formed into a separate ecclesiastical district March 26 187, from the new parishes of Rawtenstall and St James, Waterfoot, and is part of the parochial chapelry of Newchurch in Rossendale, and is now included in the municipal borough and civil parish of Rawtenstall: it is in the county court district of Bacup, a station on the East Lancashire section of the Lancashire and Yorkshire railway. The church of St John, erected in 1890, at a cost of £5000, is a building of stone in the gothic style of the late 14th century, consisting of chancel, cloistered nave of five bays, transepts, aisles and south porch, and the base of a tower: there are 450 sittings. The register dates from 1890. The living is a vicarage net yearly value £210, in the gift of the Bishop of Manchester and his successors for ever, and held since 1902 by the Rev Charles Merchant MA of Worcester College, Oxford. The Baptist chapel, first built in 1667, enlarged in 1838 and again in 1853, cost upwards of £2,000. Dr Isaac Watts, the well known author of "Psalms and Hymns" and of various songs and hymns for children was sometime minister here. There are also Wesleyan and Primitive Methodist chapels. The works of the Rossendale Gas Company are in this village. The population of the ecclesiastical district in 1901 was 3,413.
